Honouring our roots in CGIT, the Mission of Camp Kalalla is to provide leadership training and personal development opportunities to girls and women such that they may freely pursue their potential. Our activities include developing and delivering programs grounded in the four-fold values of health, wisdom, faith, and service, which advance the capacity of girls and women of all creeds and ethnicities, individually and collectively, to be engaged and contributing participants in community. Our activities are intended to foster the health and wellness of the whole person, in balance with nature and the environment, and away from the social pressures of gender competition and stereotyping.
