

Hello Kalalla Family,

April 29, 2020

As a response to the COVID-19 pandemic we are sorry to say that after much consultation with health professionals and following the guidelines of the Public Health units, we have decided not to run a traditional physical camp onsite this summer.

It is our intention to run an alternate virtual camp experience in the same time period so that the girls will still have a dose of “Kalalla.” Please stay tuned for details regarding all-camp and LIT programming — you can check the website, but we will also send an email with information when those plans are more developed.

If you have already registered for camp this summer, rest assured, you will receive a full refund. All those who have registered will be getting a second email from our Registrar. If you have not heard from her within the week, please feel free to reach out at registrar@kalalla.com.

Camp is such a unique place. We have a strong belief in the value of what camp offers to the girls. We know you share that. Campers, both old and new, come to camp and find themselves in a safe and engaging atmosphere where they can learn new skills, develop deep friendships, and understand themselves and what they have to offer the world. Staff has that same experience. We want to keep our Kalalla spirit alive and strong in these extraordinary times and are excited about finding new and creative ways to make camp special for campers this year—it will certainly be a memorable one! Watch for more information on Instagram, Facebook and our website for details, as we find new ways to experience familiar camp traditions.

If you have follow up questions regarding Registration, please reach out to the registrar at registrar@kalalla.com.

Stay healthy and safe,

Yours in Camping,
